Serving with at-risk children & families in Peru

Pray for the Greenmans

We work in partnership with UWM and Paths of Hope Ministries, collaborating with local churches to serve at-risk children and families through mentorship and counseling programs.

We invest in the lives of young men and women as they discover and pursue the path that God has laid out for them. We work in partnership with local churches, to train and equip mentors to walk alongside at-risk youth and young adults who have little or no external family support. The mentors provide safe and committed relationships as the youth and young adults transition from living in residential care to adulthood. We advocate, alongside the local church and other Christian organizations in Peru, for a child's right to grow up in a loving family environment as opposed to long-term institutional care.
